

Timeline Summary

Patrick MALONE

Mary CAREY

Joseph JONES

The relationship between the above three people was quite complex and in Family History Research terms, open to interpretation and speculation.

The timeline below lists the known information pertaining to each person upon arrival in Australia.

Timeline	PATRICK MALONE	MARY CAREY	JOSEPH JONES
1835	Patrick Malone , a native of Dublin, Ireland, arrives in the colony of NSW, per the convict ship "Hero" , aged 21 yrs. Patrick was assigned to the Chisholm Family of "Gledswood" Campbelltown and later "Kippilaw" Goulburn
1837		Mary Carey , aged c19yrs, from County Tipperary, Ireland, arrives in the Colony of NSW as a free female immigrant on the ship " James Pattinson ". {not County Clare as previously documented}	Joseph Jones , a native of Shropshire, England, aged 22 years, arrived in the Colony of NSW per the convict ship "John (4)" – 14 year sentence for highway robbery . Joseph is assigned to James Kinghorne at Goulburn (Brother-in Law and next door neighbour to James Chisholm Jnr) .
1839		Joseph Jones per ship "John 4", aged 24, seeks permission to marry Mary Carey per ship "James Pattison", aged 21 yrs – allowed – but apparently did not marry
1839		Mary Carey gives birth to a son John [later John Jones] . { Jones family hearsay indicate that John's father was a member of the Chisholm family but, to date, there is little DNA evidence! }
1841	Patrick Malone gains his Ticket-of-Leave
1842	Patrick Malone gains his Certificate of Freedom

Timeline	PATRICK MALONE	MARY CAREY	JOSEPH JONES
1843	Patrick Malone and Mary Carey had their first child, Patrick Thomas Malone born 21 March 1843 at Goulburn		Joseph Jones gains his Ticket-of-Leave and allowed to remain in the Goulburn District
1845	Patrick Malone and Mary Carey had their second child, Mary Catherine Malone born 8 June 1845 at Fish River near Goulburn
1846	Patrick Malone and Mary Carey married at St Peters & St Pauls Catholic Church at Goulburn	On the wedding day, Mary and Patrick also baptised their two children Patrick Thomas and Mary Catherine Malone
1847	Patrick Malone died at Goulburn aged just 33 years.
1949		Mary Carey (Malone) finally married Joseph Jones. Her son John converted to Catholic and baptised as John Jones.	Joseph Jones, after gaining permission back in 1939, finally married Mary Malone (nee Carey)
1864			1864 - Joseph Jones, a carrier from Goulburn, dies at Burrangong Station near Young
1867		1867 – Mary Jones (formerly Malone – nee Carey) dies at “Garroorigang” Goulburn	