JOANNES CAREY and MARIA POWER - [John Carey & Mary Power]

The origin of our ancestor Mary Carey had, for many years, remained somewhat a mystery.

Persistent family history research, over a period of 45 years, along with the rapid advancements and availability of:

- Computerised Family History Research
- DNA Technology

has given me confidence in finally confirming the parentage and early background of our ancestor Mary Carey.

The Life Story of Mary Carey is COMPLEX as documentation is scarce and there are many 'twists and turns' in her Life Story!

A brief summary of the life of Mary Carey is provided in timeline format:

➤ Mary Carey born in Ireland c1819 (as per death certificate - died aged 48 years in 1867)

➤ Mary Carey arrived in Australia from Ireland c1837 (as per death certificate – 30 years in the Colony of NSW)

➤ Mary Carey gave birth to a son John Carey (later named and baptised as John Jones)
– born 28 April 1839 (as per baptismal certificate sourced 23 September 2004)
– baptised 12 May 1839 (as per baptismal certificate sourced 23 September 2004)

➤ 13 May 1839 (the day following the baptism of her child John Carey (later John Jones))

➤ Mary Carey was granted permission to marry convict Joseph Jones (they, however, did not marry!)

➤ 21 Mar 1843 – Mary Carey gave birth to a son Patrick Thomas Malone at Goulburn

➤ 6 June 1845 – Mary Carey gave birth to a daughter Mary Catherine Malone at 'Fish River' (Gunning district)

➤ 27 July 1846 Mary Carey married Patrick Malone (convict per ship 'Hero' 1835) at St Peter & St Paul Church, Goulburn

➤ 27 July 1846 – children Patrick Thomas Malone and Mary Catherine Malone were both baptised (same day as marriage)
at St Peter & St Paul Church, Goulburn

John Jones	Patrick Thomas Malone	Mary Catherine Malone (later McNamara)

- 3 July 1847 – Patrick Malone (Convict) died at Goulburn Hospital) at the age of c35 years, leaving his wife Mary (nee Carey) and three young children
- 21 July 1849 – Mary Malone (nee Carey) was to again marry at St Saviour’s Church of England, Goulburn. Her husband was Joseph Jones (a former convict per shop ‘John [4] who arrived in the Colony of New South Wales in 1832)
- 16 August 1849 – Mary Carey’s son John Carey was baptised at St Peter’s and St Paul’s Church at Goulburn as a Catholic and took on the surname of his new stepfather and became John Jones
- 20 October 1864 – Joseph Jones (2nd husband of Mary Carey/Malone), a carrier from Goulburn died at ‘Burrangong Station’ near Young [Lambing Flat Goldfield]. He died from “vascular disease of the heart and asthma”.
- 26 August 1867 - Mary Jones (previously Malone-nee Carey) passed away on 26th August 1867 at Garroorigang, Goulburn.

A separate life story of Mary Carey appears on the website: jmarengo.com under the family tab: ‘Carey’

Mary Carey – the Forty Year Breakthrough

What was the origin of Mary Carey? Who were her parents?

On 27 January 2024, Australia Day had passed, and I was casually looking at a few Ancestry DNA matches on my Samsung tablet – nothing too exciting. My wife Pam and I both had our Ancestry DNA tests done back in 2016, so I had been looking at and sorting out our DNA matches for over 8 years.

Catching my attention, was a DNA match, Joy Moore.

The DNA match indicated Joy Moore was related to me as follows:

- Paternal side (father's side)
- Estimated 4th-6th Cousin
- DNA 23cM (centimorgans – unit of DNA measurement) 1 Segment (estimated one common ancestor)

★ From Joy Moore I chose to look into the Walsh / Welsh family line in order to see where that family lead as that family name often appeared in DNA matches on both my Paternal and Maternal family line. ★

Joy's mother Frances Welsh and grandfather Michael Patrick Welsh appeared to have been born in New Zealand.

Great grandfather Stephen Welsh was purportedly born on 26 December 1945 in Tipperary, Ireland.

The Roots Ireland baptismal document lists Stephen Walsh as:

- Baptised 10 December 1845 (not born 26 December 1845)
- Newcastle Parish, Waterford (Newcastle is on the Waterford / Tipperary border)
- Roman Catholic
- Parents William Walsh (Welsh) and Margaret Carey (Carry)
- Baptismal Sponsors: William Hackett and Catherine McGrath

The next document, when viewed ticked a number of boxes.
For quite some time, there had been research work done, that indicated that there may be quite a distinct possibility that the mother of my ancestor Mary Carey was Mary Power.
The death certificate of Mary Carey had already indicated her father's name as John Carey.

The baptismal record of Margaret Carey below showed 2 names:

Father: John Carey	Mother: Mary Power

If this is the correct baptismal document, Margaret Carey was born c1813, making her 23 years of age when she married William Walsh (above).

John Carey and Mary Power

Moving to John Carey and Mary Power we come across an important marriage document.

Johannes Carew (John Carew {John Carey}) married Maria Power (Mary Power) in the New Inn Knockgraffon Parish, Tipperary Ireland on 10 February 1818.

Another box is ticked as the marriage in 1812 followed by the birth of daughter Margaret Carey in 1813 seems quite a logical sequence of events.

There was another DNA match relating back to:

John Carey and Mary Power

The DNA match was with “Kathleen Carey”

It was quite some time ago that Kathleen Carey came up on Ancestry as a 4th-6th Cousin DNA match.

Her family tree led to an Edmund Carey:

- ✓ born 2 March 1822 in Ireland
- ✓ married Mary Reilly
- ✓ died 18 August 1896 in USA

Roots Ireland was able to reveal the following Baptismal document for Edmund Carey:

Church Baptism Record

Name:	Edmund Carey	Date of Birth:	03-Mar-1822
		Date of Baptism:
Address:		Parish/District:	CAHIR PARISH

© 2024 Copyright Bru Boru Heritage Centre (South Tipperary) www.rootsireland.ie

The date on the above Baptismal Record (Roots Ireland) is entered in the birth column and not the baptismal column.

Edmund Carey was born 2 March 1822 (as per US, Find a Grave cemetery inscription) and he was probably baptised the next day on 3 March 1822 at Cahir Parish, Tipperary.

Edmund's parents were listed as John Carey and Mary Power, thus very convincingly indicating that Edmund Carey was a brother of both Margaret Carey.

The close DNA matches and appropriateness of the birth timeline therefore suggested that my ancestor Mary Carey may have been a sibling as well.

- ❖ John Carrey married Maria Power in the New Inn & Knockgraffon Parish, (southern) Tipperary
- ❖ Most of the Carey Children were Baptised in the Cahir Parish, (southern) Tipperary
- ❖ The parishes “New Inn & Knockgraffon” and “Cahir” are neighbouring Parishes!

- ❖ Margaret Carey (who appears to be the eldest child) was baptised in Clashmore Parish in the nearby county of Waterford, which is approximately 50km from Cahir, Tipperary, where it appears the other siblings were baptised.

Were there other Children of Johannes (John) Carey and Maria (Mary) Power?

At this stage no documentation has been found for the baptism of our ancestor Mary Carey.

However other documents have been uncovered below that indicate there were additional siblings in the above family.

One issue is quite evident, the name Carey was spelt in a variety of ways {Keary, Carew etc}.

An Ancestry message to Katherine Mutschler (nee Carey) of Illinois, USA on 3 April 2024 was met the following day with a marvellous response:

Kate is a descendant of Edmund Carey and she wrote the following mind-blowing reply to my query:

“Wow! This is wonderful!!! Most of my information came from a family history written by Ellen (Nellie) Carey Ryan - one of Edmund's daughters - and was passed down to my uncle.

The only information I had about Mary and her sister Ann was that they "Left Cahir for Australia and were never heard from".

I only found information about John and Mary (Power) Carey, through a Facebook group, Irish Genealogy Ancestors Research. If you haven't checked them out, you should. They have been a valuable source when I run into brick walls. And I believe that one of the admins is located in Australia.

Migration of the Carey Siblings

Edmund Carey

Edmund Carey chose to join the many Irish Migrants to seek a better life in the USA.

As with most migrants, the pathway generally led from Ireland to the English Port of Liverpool and then to the seas beyond – they were extremely courageous!

Edmund Carey arrived in New York, USA on 29 April 1852.

Additional DNA Match – February 2026 – For Consideration!

On 11 February 2026, in Ancestry Shared Matches, I was looking at the “NEW” shared matches that had appeared on Ancestry.

Shaun Notary from Littleton, Jefferson, Colorado, USA appeared as a Paternal DNA Match (19cM - 1 Segment).

This DNA match certainly gained attention when other surprising shared matches appeared, especially as their cM levels were all higher than mine, surprising because they belonged to my family members:

- Penelope Howse 27cM (daughter)
- James Howse 20cM (grandchild)
- Charlie Howse 20cM (grandchild)

Other shared matches were listed, including Sean’s father and Sean’s daughter.

On Ancestry, Shaun Notary has a large family tree of 1444 people on display and the next research task was to sift through those names and their place of origin, in order to gain any clues as to where the link to Sean Notary could be established.

The only section of Shaun’s Family Tree that was of any interest is shown below – my great grandmother was Mary Carey from Cahir, Tipperary, Ireland (spelling variations and transcript variations in surnames were quite common – ‘Carey’, ‘Carew’, ‘Keary’ etc)

The Dilemma: For Shaun to have a DNA match along with my daughter and 2 of my grandchildren, surely we must be closely related.

As earlier in the document, my ancestor Mary Carey appears to have a number of siblings – is there possibly another sibling?

Could there possibly be a 'substitute' record for the Katherine Carew in Shaun Notary's tree?

The baptismal record below does tick some, but not all boxes:

- ✓ Given name Katherine and Catherine are interchangeable
- ✓ Surname 'Carew' and 'Carey' are often interchangeable depending on the transcriber/transcription
- ✓ Parents names of 'John' and 'Mary' match with my Mary Carey
- ✓ Parents surnames – John is listed as Carew, while Mary clearly has a 'y' at the end of her name (the maiden name Power does not exist but maiden names of the mother were not always listed)
- ✓ Newport Parish is listed in the Cashel & Emly Diocese – other possible siblings have Cashel & Emly listed as either a Parish or a Diocese – Parish boundaries and Parish names did vary over times!
- ✓ The baptism of Catherine is listed as 28 September 1831, is listed as 10 months after 'brother' Thomas Carey 25 Nov 1830 (providing sufficient time for the 9 month birth cycle of a child)
